Prize Winners in Westerly Contest

Miss Annie B. Ahern Wins in High School Speaking, with Miss Papalia Second—Local Librarians Heard at State Meeting—Funeral of Edward C. Brown—Sudden Death of Mrs. James D. Miner, of North Stonington.

There was lively interest in the annual prize speaking contest of the girls of the Westerly High school Thursday evening in School hall. The order of exercises was as follows:
Violin solo, Berceuse, Joselyn Goddard, by Miss Maude Briggs; prayer, by Rev. George W. Rigler; Praise Ye the Father, Gounod, chorus recitation, The King's Pardon, Goodwin, by Anna D. Lewis; recitation, Commencement, Kellogg, by Annie B. Ahern; recitation, Miss Moffitt, Field, by Anna D. Peckham; Captain James's Star, Richards, by Theresa E. Dougherty; solo, Whisper and I Shall Hear, M. Piccolomini, by Agnes V. Roche; recitation, Ave Willie Winkie, Kipling, by Carrie A. Travis; recitation, What the Fiddle Told, Franklin, Marie J. Papalia; recitation, The Keeper of the Light, Van Dyke, by Mary J. Williams; recitation, How the Old Horse Won the Bet, Holmes, by A. Evelyn Beebe; Pilgrims' Chorus, Wagner-Taunhauser, chorus. The judges were Miss Harriet Woodard, teacher of music and elocution, Silas T. Nye, principal of Elm street school, and Frank Hill of Ashaway. There were two cash prizes of $10 and $5. The first prize was awarded to Miss Annie B. Ahern and the second prize to Miss J. Papalia.

In the absence of Richard Bliss of Newport, J. L. R. Harrison, librarian of the Providence Athenaeum, presided at the meeting of the Rhode Island Library association held in the public library building at Arlington. There were two sessions, morning and evening, and the opening paper was read by Ethan Wilcox, librarian emeritus of the Westerly public library. His subject was Book Buying in New York, and treated in a comprehensive and instructive way of a practical plan for the conservation of the library book fund, advocating the desirability of keeping posted on clearance book sales in all parts of the world, which can be readily done nowadays with the modern postal facilities.

Rev. Joseph L. Peacock, librarian of the Westerly public library, read the first paper of the afternoon session, his subject being The Stranger Within the Gates, which was an interesting and instructive interpretation of what the public expects from a public library. He explained that a library was no longer a storehouse of books, where the public could seek information within the building under prescribed conditions, but a distributing agency of knowledge and intellectual recreation. The physical, educational and temperamental qualifications of a librarian were referred to in connection with the work and the need of sound moral judgment in the selection of books of fiction for general distribution.

There was a general discussion of all four papers and the meeting was helpful to the forty or more library workers in attendance.
At the funeral of Edward C. Brown Thursday afternoon at his residence in Goshanna avenue the services were conducted by Rev. John G. Dutton of the Broad street Christian church, many friends being in attendance. The bearers were Walter E. Wheeler, William S. Martin, Frederick Rogers, John Kennedy, Charles H. Ledward and John T. Edmond. Burial was at River Bend.

has ordered him to close the island up for the season, and it was his intention to do so unless someone showed up. Captain Boynton himself intends to take a long boat cruise this summer, leaving here the end of May.
The captain said there had been other managers than Boom looking for the island, but he did not know whether they would open negotiations at this time or not.

Twenty Years Ahead!

Crawford Ranges

Other ranges have not advanced in any material way in twenty years. They have the same cook-confusing, food-spoiling way of regulating by two dampers.

Crawfords have but One Damper (patented); one motion controls fire and oven absolutely; slide the knob to "kindle," "bake" or "check"—the range does the rest. No damper mistakes.

Ordinary ranges have the old clumsy ash pan; troublesome, untidy. Crawfords have an Ash Hod (patented) into which all the ashes fall, far below the fire—making their disposal easy and cleanly. The Coal Hod is beside it.

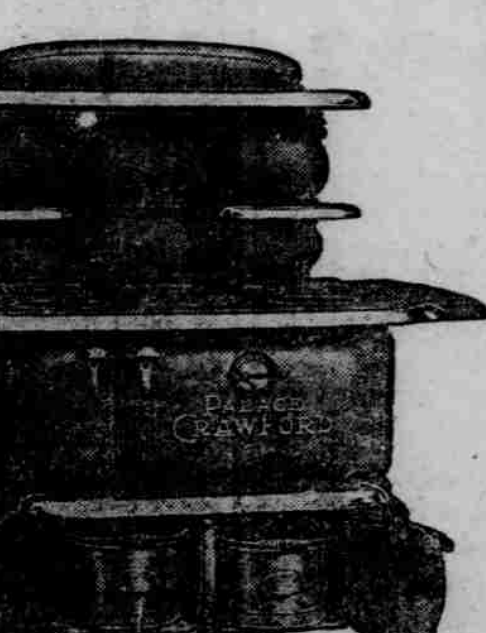

Crawford Ovens have cup-joint flues that heat every part uniformly. Crawfords have Patented Grates—most durable, least trouble.

Gas Ovens and Broilers at end or above range furnished if desired.

Ask the Crawford agent to show you and write to us for circulars.
